This Week's Devotional

Some time ago, six lives were snuffed out when a small plane crashed into a mountain in Pennsylvania near a twenty-one metre high stainless steel cross, which served as a marker for a Christian training centre. The Associated Press dispatch reporting the tragedy says, "The cross has electric lights, but they were not turned on at the time." We would infer from this reference to the unlit cross that perhaps the terrible tragedy might have been averted had the cross been lit. So the message of the cross, the only hope of eternal life, must be given to all people for their salvation. Christ crucified is still "the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes" (Rom 1:16). "There was One who was willing to die in my stead, That a soul, so unworthy, might live. And the path to the cross He was willing to tread, All the sins of my life to forgive." — Carrie Ellis Breck

So to you who are troubled, sorrowful, dissatisfied with life, or in despair, let me say, Christ's victory at Golgotha was for you. Believe it and accept it, and you will have found a power in your life to face any situation. You are not alone. Jesus is still Immanuel, God with us! The victory of the cross, then, is that it becomes for us a tree of life, a living corridor of infinite hope, a bridge to heaven, a seal of salvation, a destroyer of sin, a stimulus to kind and holy deeds, a bond of union to all who love God, and a fountain of justice and mercy—immeasurably deep, yet ever accessible. — Excerpt from "Calvary: The Victory of the Cross", Rex D. Edwards, Elders Digest Q2 2020 Pg 16
