Pastor's Comment

A story is told of a boy (12yrs) who wanted to learn how to play guitar. He took a few lessons from local guitar teachers but they discouraged him from continuing, saying that he didn't have any talent. They didn't think they could teach him.

Luckily for him an amateur guitarist heard of his story and volunteered to teach him at no charge.

At first his new teacher struggled to teach him but unlike other teachers, this one was determined and was not going to give up. This teacher was very patient. The boy could see that his teacher was very patient with him through his words and actions. For this reason, the boy put in his every effort to do his best. The saying goes like this, "The real test of patience is not in the waiting but in how one behaves while waiting."

"But let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing" (James 1:4, NKJV).

This "Kid," whose first guitar teachers gave up on him, eventually grew up to become a professional musician. Thank you to his Amateur teacher for his patience.

Let us remember to have patience with one another. Let us continue to ask God to live out His life of Patience in us daily.
