From the Pastor's Pen

The new year 2021 has well and truly settled in and I wonder what we can expect from it. It's a bit rhetorical but I can't help asking, "how was the year 2020 for you?" and believe me, I do not blame you if you roll up your eyes. You and me both plus the 7.8 billion people in the planet.

I had a conversation with 2020 and 2021 on New Year's day. It went like this --- "So long, 2020! You've been, well . . . hard but you've taught us so much and really tested our resolve. You've also given us a lot; new perspectives on life. You've given us a new appreciation for the little things, new priorities for the new year. Hello, 2021! You are the unknown. You may be better, or you may be worse but there is one thing we know won't change. God will still be in control and His promises will still be true."

This is my prayer for you and me, that we will hold fast to hope, no matter what a new year may bring for He is the same God yesterday, today and forever
(Hebrews 13:8).
