A Message from the Pastor

John Wesley was on board a ship bound for the Georgia colony in early 1736 when a ferocious storm shredded the main sail and flooded the decks.

Many of the English passengers aboard screamed in terror that they would soon be swallowed by the deep. But a group of Moravian missionaries from Germany calmly sang throughout the squall. They were unafraid of death.

Wesley wrote afterwards, "I felt my heart strangely warmed. I felt I did trust in Christ alone for salvation."

This reminds me of these inspired words;

Our last thought at night and our first thought in the morning should be of Him in whom are centered our hopes of eternal life. He died for us. He saw us in peril, exposed to destruction, and He poured out His life to save us. He is our Advocate. He has placed a treasure-house of blessing at our command... (Published in Signs of the Times, February 28, 1906).

May this be, our experience, not only today, but also tomorrow and all the days after, until we see Him face to face.
God bless you.

Waitara Snippet

We have a God who is mighty and strong. He is big and powerful and able to do anything. He is also a God of love who only wants the best for each of us. Because He is so big nothing is too hard or impossible for Him to do. You can safely leave each day in His care and let Him handle it, including the trials and problems and anxieties that may be troubling you. He's on your side! Let this quote from Roy Lessin encourage you: "Daily the Lord: bears your burdens (Ps.68.19); gives you bread (Mt. 6:11); shows you mercy (Lam.3:22); gives you strength (Is.33:2); remains faithful (Lam. 3.23); does no wrong (Zeph. 3:5); never fails (Lam.3:23)." Let the God who loves you supremely and who will never fail you or leave you, daily have first place in your life. Let Him be your refuge. He will never let you down!

At all times, good or bad, "The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms." Deuteronomy 33:27 NIV
