From the Pastor's Pen

Sanctification requires our full cooperation, which is why we are to "put to death what is earthly in you" (Colossians 3:5). Even Paul the Apostle admitted, "I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing" (Romans 7:19). Conversion starts the process of sanctification, but that process is not completed until the day of Jesus Christ (Philippians 1:6).

Others will say that people who claim to follow Jesus but still sin, are not true Christians. That is not necessarily true, the Bible teaches, "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us". However If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. (1 John 1:8,9)
When Christians sin, they go to Christ and claim that promise.

The Scottish theologian John Baillie offered a morning prayer to God that I invite you to pray with me: "By your grace, O God, I will go nowhere today where you cannot come, nor seek anyone's presence that would rob me of yours. By your grace I will let no thought enter my heart that might hinder my closeness with you, nor let any word come from my mouth that is not meant for your ear. So shall my courage be firm and my heart be at peace."

I pray that your heart will be at peace today.
