A Message from the Pastor

God's word instructs us, "Do not be anxious about anything" (Philippians 4:6a).

Paul "was evidently in prison at the time and with good reason to be anxious about everything."

However, the apostle continued: "but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God" (v. 6b).

He does not deny that the worst things will happen finally to all of us, He simply tells the Philippians that in spite of them—even in the thick of them—they are to keep in constant touch with the One who unimaginably transcends the worst things as he also unimaginably transcends the best."

They are to keep on asking, keep on thanking, above all keep on making themselves known.

He does not promise them that as a result they will be delivered from the worst things any more than Jesus himself was delivered from them.

What he promises them instead is that 'the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.'
