This Week's Reflection

FREEDOM OF BEING LOVED

How priceless is your unfailing love, O God! All humanity finds shelter in the shadow of your wings. Psalm 36:7NLT

"Fear of being unloved is the basic reason for poor self-confidence, inability to move forward, and lack of motivation. The old expression "Love makes the world go round" is absolutely true, because God is love, and without Him, life is empty, meaningless, and downright scary!

Knowing with absolute certainty that you are loved gives you power to go forward with confidence and holy boldness! It allows you to open the door of uncertainty without fear and trepidation, because you know God loves you and is with you! You can throw fear out the window and relax, enjoying each day because you are loved!

Everyone wants to be loved by family and friends, but there is no one who will love you more than Jesus! If you increase your time praying and studying God's Word, the more you will know and understand just how much God loves you.

Basking in the joy of His unconditional, deep and abiding love will help you discover new courage and confidence that you never knew before! The freedom of being loved will allow you to change who you are today and become the person God created you to be!"

'Strength for Today, Brenda Walsh, pg 45'

Prayer Ministry Invitation

Please join on Zoom (link above) Wednesday night 16th 7:00-8:00pm as we continue our devotional on Genesis 16: Hagar and the Birth of Ishmael and Q&A with Pastor Bar-end.

Genesis 16: Abraham's second wife

- A) Sarai proposes a child for Abraham through Hagar. (1-6)
- B) Hagar flees from Abraham and Sarai. (7-16)

Followed by prayer time, Jesus prayed frequently and consistently. Not for Himself, but for others. Let us emulate His example to receive His blessings!!

Our way of working.

"The Lord has marked out our way of working. As a people we are not to imitate and fall in with Salvation Army methods. This is not the work that the Lord has given us to do. Neither is it our work to condemn them and speak harsh words against them. There are precious, self-sacrificing souls in the Salvation Army. We are to treat them kindly. There are in the Army honest souls, who are sincerely serving the Lord, and who will see greater light, advancing to the acceptance of all truth. The Salvation Army workers are trying to save the neglected, downtrodden ones. Discourage them not. Let them do that class of work by their own methods and in their own way. But the Lord has plainly pointed out the work that Seventh-day Adventists are to do. Camp meetings and tent meetings are to be held. The truth for this time is to be proclaimed. A decided testimony is to be borne. And the discourses are to be so simple that children can understand them."
